

“Legacy in Action: The Volunteer Spirit of Queen Sheba Village”

Celebrating Volunteerism's Lasting Impact

"Volunteering is not a minus service, it is a huge stepping stone to huge accomplishments. At the end of the day, the receivers and the givers smile with happiness."

~ Founder, Queen Sheba D Cisse

Mission

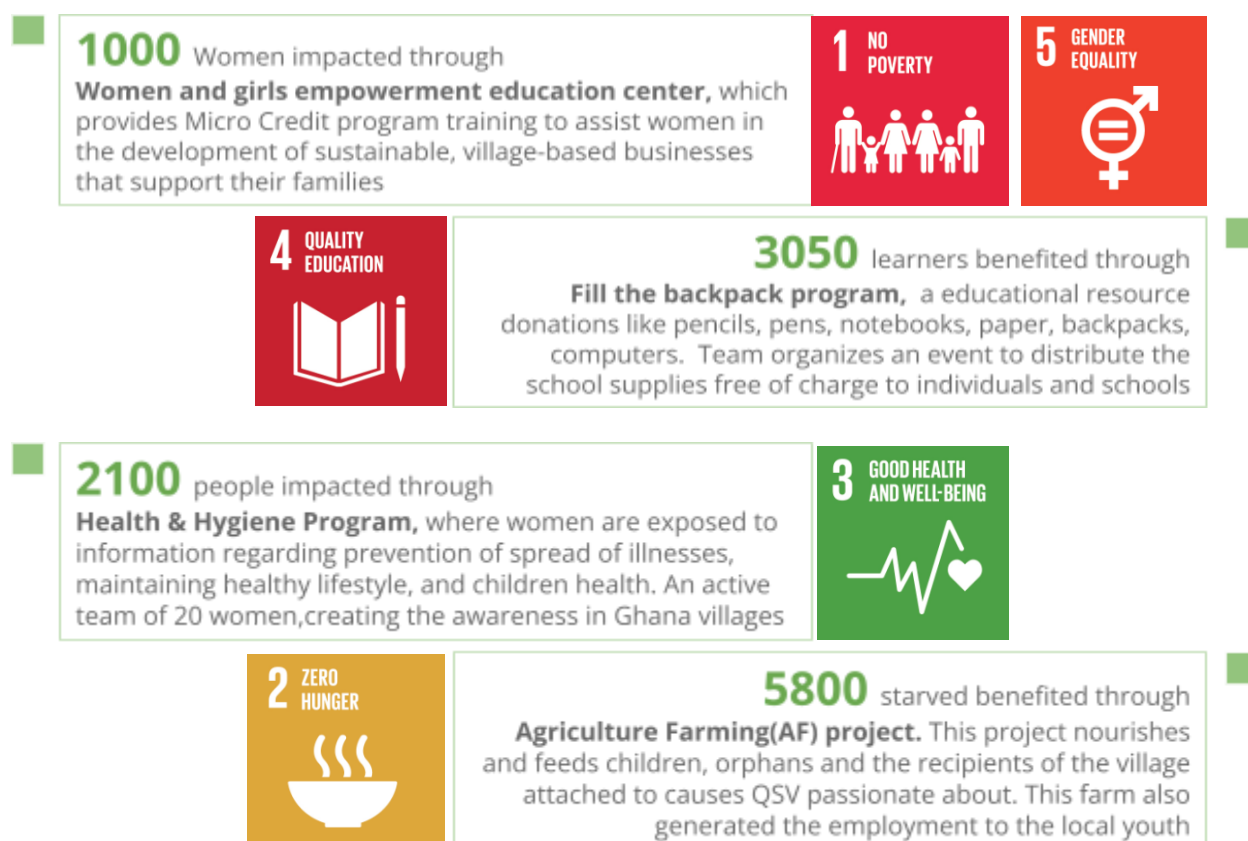

Queen Sheba village(QSV), a 100% volunteer based non profit organization, is missioned to empower young women, girls, children and youth from underserved communities, to achieve their vision for the future, by benefiting from the programs related to educational development, economic opportunities, and community upliftment. QSV's operations are focused on communities in rural Senegal, and sister associations in Ghana, Nigeria. QSV supports teens in Washington DMV regions. QSV highlights volunteerism in its own right and celebrates the dedicated volunteers united at the core aiding humanity.

Challenges faced by the African Communities

| Educational Barrier | Period Poverty | FGC and Others | Teen Mentorship |
|--|---|--|---|
| In Senegal, only 33% of girls enroll in secondary school Key contributing factors include financial hardships, cultural practices like early marriage and early/ teenage pregnancies . In Kolda region 68% girls marry before the age of 18, i.e double the national average of 31% Source: Alafrika.com | Ghana's females struggle to afford sanitary pads Locally sourced pads are not effective and imported pads comes with 32.5% luxury tax. Health and Hygiene are a big challenge in africa regions Source: The Guardian/ PR | ~ 15% of Nigerian girls affected teenage pregnancy Teenage pregnancy poses the risks such as maternal health complications, loss of educational opportunities, inadequate access to health services and increased poverty cycles. In rural areas % rate is even high Source: NDHS-24/ PR | Lack of mentorship leading to degrowth and unemployment Africa regions are facing massive school dropout rates, high unemployment (~63%), gender disparities, skill gap in emerging sectors, mental health and social issues due to lack of Teen mentorship and guidance Source: UNICEF/ PR |

QSV - Impact on SDGs

Ongoing Projects at QSV

- 1 School Supply Distribution
We successfully launched this initial project in 2013 in Diourbel (Touba) Senegal. QSV has served other villages and continues the upward momentum putting smiles on little ones faces. Annual Project cost : $5000
- 2 QSV's Health & Hygiene Program
Queen Sheba Village focuses on the well being of women and children in rural Senegal, West Africa. Education, health, and business-building programs help impoverished women become financially independent. Annual Project cost : $2000
- 3 Abandonment of Female Genital Cutting (FGC)
FGC is a procedure that intentionally alters the female genital organ for non-medical reasons in order to control a woman's "chastity." This harmful practice is carried out from infancy and on very young girls. QSV is spreading awareness to end FGC. Annual Project Cost : $ 1500
- 4 Young Women & Girls Education Empowerment Social Center in Mbour

The Social Education Center that enables young women and girls to have access to education in one conducive location feasible to a significant population of citizens. Est. cost: $ 100,000
